List of Tables

List of Figures

Nomenclature, Symbols, Acronyms

The “nomenclature, symbols, acronyms” page is optional.

Abstract

The “abstract” is required and is limited to 350 words.

Chapter 1. Introduction

This is the first paragraph of your first chapter.

1.1. Audience

This is a paragraph inside of a section.

1.1.1. Background

A paragraph in a subsection.

1.2. Citing bibliography entries, figures, tables, and

As shown in [2], you can reference bibliography entries using the “`\cite`” command. You can also refer to other parts of the document, such as Chapter 1 or §1.1.1, but letting \LaTeX handle the numbering. That way, if you move things around, or choose a different numbering style, then you won’t have to manually keep track of the changes.

Appendix A. Some appendix

This is an appendix.

Appendix B. Another appendix

This is another appendix.

Appendix C. IRB Approval

The “IRB approval form” must be reproduced here if the nature of this work requires such an approval. If included, then it should be the second-to-last appendix.

Appendix D. Permissions

The “permissions” area reproduces requests and permissions for previously published material or material belonging to others. If included, then it should be the last appendix.
