

In this Example, we are asked to find the volume of the solid bounded by the two parabolic cylinders $y = x^2$ and $z = x^2$, together with the planes $z = 0$ and $y = 4$.

We have left the plane $y = 4$ completely transparent so that we can look clearly through it into the enclosed solid region.